

Sept
1870

CONCERT

IN CITY HALL, CARLETON.

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, APRIL 3RD, 1872.

THE CANTATA

—OF—

ESTHER THE BEAUTIFUL QUEEN,

Will be given by a number of Lady and Gentlemen Amateurs of the City and Carleton, under the direction of Mr. T. H. Hall.

Proceeds in aid of the Organ fund of the Baptist Church.

Esther, the Queen, . . . . .	MISS H BRUNDAGE.
Ahasuerus, King of Persia and Media, . . . . .	MR. M. S. HALL.
Hammán, Overseer of the Realm, . . . . .	MR. T. H. HALL.
Zeresh, . . . . .	MRS. DINGLE.
Mordecai, . . . . .	M. F. MANKS.
Queen's First maid of honor, . . . . .	MRS. D. MARTIN.
Hegai, . . . . .	MR. J. DRAKE.
High Priest, . . . . .	MR. BURNHAM.
Harbonah, . . . . .	MR. VINCENT.
Maid of honor, . . . . .	MRS. BAXTER.
" " . . . . .	MRS. H. TITUS.

Miss Laura Clarke and Professor Williams, will preside at Piano.

Tickets 25 Cents, to be had at the Colonial Book Store, at R. N. Knight's, at the Post Office, Carleton, and at the door.

Doors open at 7.15: Concert to commence at 8 o'clock.

PROGRAMME.

---

PART FIRST.

1. CHORUS OF HAMAN'S FRIENDS.
2. SOLO,—Haman. "Behold this Mordecai in scorn!"
3. DUET,—King and Haman. "A song, a song of joy."
4. SOLO,—“Lo, o'er the wicked in hours that seem brightest.”
5. SOLOS AND CHORUS,—Mordecai, Esther, and the Jews.
“Israel, O Israel, for thee do I tremble.”
6. DUET,—Mordecai and Esther, with Chorus of Jews.
“Go thou unto the King.”
7. CHORUS,—“He that goeth forth and weepeth.”
8. SOLOS,—King and Esther. “What wilt thou Queen Esther?”
9. SOLO AND DUET,—King and Queen. “Long live our beauteous Queen.”
10. CHORUS AND SOLO,—“Call to the Banquet Hall; haste to the Banquet Hall.”
11. Zeresh, (alto),—“Why should these Hebrews.”
With Maids of Honor. “Then shall no care.”

---

PART SECOND.

1. CHORUS OF THE JEWS, WITH SOLOS,—“God is the Refuge of His People.”
Solo,—“In Thee, O Lord, do I put my trust.”
2. SOLO,—King. “What honor and dignity.”
3. DIALOGUE,—King and Haman.
4. CHORUS,—“Aha, proud F man begins to fall.”
5. QUARTETTE OF MALE VOICES. “The King has given commandment.”

PART SECOND.—Continued.

6. CHORUS of Rejoicing at Haman's Defeat, with Solos. "Open ye the Gates."
7. SOLO, with Chorus accompaniment. "Thou wilt keep us in perfect peace."
8. SOLO,—Haman proclaiming Mordecai the Favored of the King.
"Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the King delighteth to honor."
9. SOLO,—Zeresh to Haman. "Thy galling defeat, alas! we know it all."
10. DUET AND CHORUS. At the Banquet. "Long live our beauteous Queen."
11. Banquet Music.
12. DIALOGUE,—King and Esther. "What is thy petition?"
13. QUARTETTE,—Mordecai, Zeresh, Hegai, and Maid of Honor.
"Do I awake, or am I dreaming?"
14. CHORUS,—"When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion."
15. FINALE — Choral — with accompanying Chorus: "Praise ye the Lord."

PART THIRD.

1. Piano Solo, - - - - - MISS L. CLARKE.
2. Solo,—"Lament of the Irish Emigrant," - - - MRS. DINGLE.
3. Solo,—"Down by the Sea," - - - - - MR. J. DRAKE.
4. Duet,—"Let us gather bright flowers," -
MRS. DINGLE AND MRS. MARTIN.
5. Solo,—"Stray Leaves," from Norma, - - - MRS. D. MARTIN.
6. Solo,—"Man the Life Boat," - - - - - MR. E. STEWART.
7. Quartette,—"Dreams of Home." - - - - -